

ORIGINAL 16 MENS & WOMENS CURLING CLUB CHAMPIONSHIPS

WHAT CLUBS AND CURLERS NEED TO KNOW

Please read the 2024-25 Curling Canada Club Championship eligibility rules. (attached)

Please share the FAQ document (attached) with your potential teams in advance of the February 1st registration deadline.

It is the curling clubs AND teams' responsibility to read and familiarize themselves with the rules provided in the Curling Alberta Club Championship appendix (found on the CA website). Ineligible teams and/or clubs will be subject to penalty (ex. warning, disqualification)

Who?

Participating curling clubs must be affiliated with Curling Alberta and in good standing with all applicable dues paid in full.

Curling Alberta Member Curling Centres can enter 1 team per gender, clubs with 250 or more members can enter 2 teams per gender.

Host Clubs of Club Championship Qualifiers

The Club Championship is a Curling Club event in which clubs are responsible for naming and registering their teams, so Curling Alberta allows each host club one registration per gender into the event at no charge.

Key Dates.

- Club Championship Qualifiers – March 6-9, 2025 (teams can enter any one of the locations below.
 - Men's locations – Acadia, Thistle & High Prairie
 - Women's locations – Cochrane, Leduc & High Prairie
- Club Championship Provincials – April 2-6, 2025, Okotoks

Friday, December 13, 2024

- Curling Alberta will email the curling clubs a private link so that they can declare their team(s) and pay the registration fee.

By registering for the Club Championship by the February 1st deadline, both clubs and teams need to recognize that they are expressing a commitment to compete and must do so with the knowledge that they must continue to play at all levels, up to and including the Provincial Championships, until they are eliminated.

Depending on the number of teams competing at each qualifier location, daytime curling on Thursday and/or Friday may be needed.

Saturday, February 1, 2025

- Deadline for curling clubs to declare if they will have team(s) and to pay the registration fee. Refunds will not be issued after this date.
- Shortly after the February 1st deadline, Curling Alberta will email the draws to the Curling Clubs and ask that the clubs please forward them on to their team(s).

Wednesday, February 5, 2025

- Curling Alberta will email the curling clubs a private link to register their team roster(s).
- Curling clubs are responsible to confirm that every member on the team that will represent their curling club is eligible in accordance with the Curling Canada/Curling Alberta eligibility rules. A penalty may be issued if teams are not eligible as per the published eligibility rules.

Monday, March 3, 2025

- Deadline for team rosters, which will be emailed to the Curling Clubs and provided to the host clubs.

Please contact Curling Alberta for any clarification that is needed.
